Mr. William L. Borden
Executive Director
Joint Committee on Atomic Energy
Congress of the United States
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Borden:

Your letter of 6 March 1950, addressed to Dr. Walter F. Colby, Director of Intelligence of the Atomic Energy Commission, together with its enclosure of 4 February 1950 from [REDACTED] has been forwarded to this Agency for consideration.

STATOTHR

[REDACTED] has been contacted in Germany with respect to the information alleged to be in his possession. The information is apparently without foundation and is of no value. [REDACTED] appears to be very anxious to emigrate to the United States under IRO auspices and his letter to Senator McMahon is apparently part of his plan to facilitate this emigration.

STATOTHR

It is planned to take no further action in this case.

Sincerely,

Signed

R. H. Hillenkoetter
